About the Institution

Acknowledged as 'College of Excellence' by UGC, 'Excellent College Imparting Public Service Programmes in Punjab' by AICTE, MHRD, New Delhi, 'Flagship College' by Confederation of Education Excellence (CEE) in association with ECONS and awarded with 'Edupreneurs Award' by Times of India and FICCI Higher Education Excellence Award, Hans Raj Mahila Maha Vidyalaya, Jalandhar, a premier institution of North India has entered the centennial decade of its origin. The institute functions under the DAV College Managing Committee which is the largest Non Govt. Organization established with an aim to carry forward the dreams of great visionaries like Swami Dayanand Saraswati, Mahatma Hans Raj and Mahatma Anand Swami. Mahatma Hans Raj laid the foundation of this institution in Lahore in 1927 with the noble mission of educating & empowering girls. Ever since its inception, the college has been committed to the cause of women education. At present, this is one of the oldest institutions established by DAV College Managing Committee, operating under the supervision and guidance of a great visionary leader Dr. Punam Suri, Padmashree Awardee, President, DAVCMC, New Delhi. The college has the unique distinction of having been re-accredited with Grade A by NAAC with highest score and recipient of the Pradhan Mantri Kaushal Vikas Yagna. Keeping pace with the accelerated rate of growth, the institute offers a balanced curriculum complemented with inculcation of moral fibre and fortitude.
