

Study Tour Details of BFA Sem VIII

Session 2018-19

Report on Study tour Of BFA Sem VIII to Historical Place

Pul Kanjari/ Pul Moran and Heritage Village Sada Pind

One day educational trip for BFA Sem VIII Students of Fine Arts Department, of Hans Raj Mahila Maha Vidyalaya, Jalandhar on dated 12.042019., visited Sada Pind and Pul Kanjari. They did architectural study,life drawing,portrait study, composition painting etc.

Objective of the Educational Tour

- ∗ To spread awareness about outdoor landscaping and nature study.
- ∗ To explore the knowledge of on the paintings and architecture.
- ∗ To interact, learn and understand the traditional, culture and life style of villages.
- ∗ To study the effect sky and outdoor temperature for good composition painting.

Places of visit

- ∗ 500 yards ahead near Amritsar, there is on the right leading to village Attalgarh.
- ∗ After visiting Attalgarh, the students visited Pul Moran/ Pul Kanjari.
- ∗ Famous Shiva Temple made up off Nanakshahi Bricks at Pul Moran.
- ∗ B.S. F. Border Post visited by Students
- ∗ Sada Pind Visited by students. They experienced the old works of Punjab folk motifs, cultural shows, folk dance etc.

Outcomes of the Study Tour

- ∗ Detail Knowledge of group study of various art and architectural monuments.
- ∗ Learning of the Traditional Values and Cultural ethics.
- ∗ Detail Knowledge of Folk motifs related to art

Group visited at Amritsar